

2022 Clearfield Choral Society

Hello Community Member,

The Clearfield Choral Society is presenting their annual winter concert on Sunday, December 18, 2022 at 6:30 p.m. at the Clearfield Presbyterian Church. This concert will feature Vivaldi's "Gloria" and other season favorites. Joining our choir will be other instrumentalists made up of professional musicians from our community, Central Pennsylvania, and beyond.

This performance is already shaping up to be a very successful event, with patrons coming from our community and surrounding communities. On average, our winter concerts see an audience of 250-300 patrons. Our organization, since 2015, is building a reputation for providing a high quality concert experience to our patrons. You can be part of it!

We are looking for individuals, businesses, and organizations to make financial contributions in order to make this performance a success. Please review the information on the back of this letter and consider making a contribution.

If you'd like to attend the concert, tickets will be available online at www.ClearfieldArts.org or www.ClearfieldChoralSociety.org at the CAST office (112 E. Locust Street, Clearfield) on Mondays 10:30-11:30 and Wednesdays 4:30-5:30, and at the church one hour before the concert.

If you have any questions, or I can be of further assistance, please contact me using the information below.

We are looking forward to an amazing performance!
